Seventeen Democrat States have joined in demanding the prote tion of the national flag for the slave hull asjority are so reliably and surely Democartic lat they can be depended on to vote the proelevery ticket at any given election without the utmost effort of the party, while all but three publican rains. Remos, if the slave trans-tion and unequivocal creed in the na-tional Democratic platform, their failure will be due solely to the existence of the Republican party, which holds the pro-slavery faction in the North in constant terror. For, what logical sequence is more straightforwar and conclusive than the African Slave Trade from the premises of Squatter Sovereignty If it is right to carry slavery to new territor it is right to get the slaves where they ar cheapest. If it is right to put slavery upon the lands we have bought from France or robbed from Mexico, it is right to get the raw material den development which has been made at rieston. Slavery abounds in surprise repeal of the Missouri Compromise did not seem less strange, not less audden, not less than the slave trade programme which is now commended to us. The Dred Scott de-cision in its length and breadth was not less unexpected. Mr. Douglas' announcement, that the first clause in the Declaration of Indepen lence was not intended to include "all men, road of Slavery, have always understood the advantage of an accomplished fact. The Missouri Compromise repealed by a coup d' ctat, who shall undertake to restore it? The Dred cott decision pronounced by a sudden usur-ation of functions which never belonged to rule it during the lives of the judges? The Af rican Slave Trade re-opened, and the executive lave traders, what agency shall be invoked to drive it from the seas, or stay its spread into the Territories? These are questions to be pondered, whether the last step in the proress of the crime , be now consummated mly deferred to a more convenient season.

Our advice to all Northern people is to hand ever the "Weekly" to the exclusive fostering care and patronage of the siarcholders, and not insult themselves or insult poison into the minds of their families by permitting it to come into their hands. If they want an "illustrated" paper they will find Frank Leakie's superior in every respect to Harpers', and free of pro-slavery bias. The N. Y. Tribuse thus speaks of this wolf in sheep's clothing:

"Skillfully prepared for effect on the minds of the uninformed, and exempted from ordinary scrutiny by journals of adverse politics, the Weekly indulges in a reckiesances of assertion, a profusion of libelous of imputation, with regard to the Hepublican party, its principles, its measures and its men, such as is not found in the columns of the most unscrupious and characteries of the undisgulated organs of the Slave Democracy. Nowhere size will you find resistance to the aggressions of the slave papers more unsparingly singuistized as fantical or reasonable—nowhere clac will you find the policy of pretecting our own mining, manufacturing and mechanical industry, by the imposi-

PARLOR VIEWS.

The calm, moderate, deliberate

Notwithstanding this feeling, there are some substantial South Carolinains who will not only stand by Douglas if nominated, but openly advocate his nomination. Among these is Governor Atken. In the city of Charlesion, too, Douglas is not without friends, although he is by no means their first choice.

Imagine a crowded barroom. A hundred people present. Huge bowls of claret punch, brandy punch and other luxurious concections of the balmy South are loading down the counters. About ten expert blacks assist the white bar princes is turning out cocktails, aherry coblers, mint jutips, smakes and all sorts of those things. The weather is hot; the people are thirsty. Loud declarations, secret conclaves, soft and hard whisperings, plettings and counter plottings, strategrees, pipe-laying, and all other surroundings of a high-blooded political convention, give a seek to a occial drink that no other excitement can produce; and yet the bright and fragrant roses you see through yon-der window seem to weep and bow their heads aorrowfully in the gentle south wind as each drink is swallowed. There are drinkers from the forces North, drinkers from the carried and the swallowed from the forces North, drinkers from the carried and the swallowed from the forces that the swallowed. Mr. Swisher evern.—I came up and saw defeedant and Arus in the bouse. Arms was attempting to arrest defendant, who told him to stand off or he would aboot him. Arms drew a revolver out of his pocket and cocked it. The latter heid the revolver for a moment, and then said to defendant, "Richter, life is sweet, but if you take my life first, you will have to be the quickest." Arms then desisted for a moment, and dropped his pisted by his side, stating that "if you are not taken now, you will be before to-morrow night, for I will go to Leavenworth and get the troops." Arms stood partially in the door—appeared to be going, but suddenly tarned to defendant and said, "By God, you have to go." Both drew their pistols, Arms carrying his directly in fropt of him, with his thumb upon the hammer. The Page county Herald notices the passage through that place, of a company with fifteen wagons bound for Oregon. There were 75 to 100 persons, men, women and children, in the company, and all well provided for the journey. Eight of the teams started from Barlington, and seven from Henry county. They had a brass band, and a string band in the company, so that they can "discourse sweet music" as they wend their way across the plains, and thus enliven many a dull hour.

Madame Lareine ascended into the pen, and took har place after delivering herself of a stately accop to the judges and the court, like a grand dame of the reign of Louis XTV. She did not give their lordyhips any trouble about taking her seat—agt she! When her attention was called to the various acts of cruelty, both of speech and act, with which Mr. Barber was charged on account of Mrs. Harper's alleged extravagance in dress, she clasped her hands in an embhasic way and exclaimed, "Ah! Mon Diese! Cest information of the Court that the usual Parisian calculation for a lady's dress varied propertionately with the familty income, and that the amount of the dot brought by the wife was invariably taken largely into account. Upon an income of a5,000 francs she could positively sfirm—assuming two children—that a lady was economical who only expended 10,000 francs on one was Mrs. Barker, in her opinion, was entitled to expend, at the lessat, £400 per annum on this object. The sum of £200 per annum was a mere misera—it was macquin. Applerable Was £25 too much for that evoning robe of white satin? Assuredly not? The court must take into account that there were bouillonnes of the same under the skirt, which was necessarily fully taken which was again adorned with bouillonne and a frill of silver lace. She saw no manion of the borthe, which was a prigent. And

A Novel Custom.

Mr. Collins, in his "Voyage down the Amoor," recently published by the Mears. Appleton, gives the folioging account of a novel termination to a grand dinner given by the merchants of Kyachta to himself and his companion, Mr. Peyton, who were the first American seen in their city. The company, at the close of the dinner proper, adjourned to the coffee room, where coffee and delicious tea were served.—They then returned to the dining room, which had been in the meantime cleared even to that shies. To the dimary of the guests, champagne was again handed about, and they were pressed to take the parting glass. This drank, our author says:

motion would not cover the whole subject, resolutions and all with it?

Mr. Stuart of Michiganl objected to the inquiry, saying we will ascertain that when the vote is takes.

After further debate the Chair stated that the motion to lay on the table the previous question gerries with it the several platforms.

Mr. Montgomery then withdraw the motion to lay on the table.

Mr. Miles of Maryland wanted to know what would be the effect of the previous question, Recresening the principal slave district of Maryland—be wanted the opportunity to reply to the remarks made here by his colleague, (Johnson,) whom he charged with misrepresenting his constituents at home, and salutifying his own previously expressed opinions. (Ories of "the previous question," and it was seconded at 11 o'clock, ——, of Fia., demanded a vote by States, amid great excitement throughout the last.

decision on that point, the vote was proceeded, with, resulting as follows: Ayes 302—mays'll, from Maryland. So the main question was ordered.

The question then recurred on the medion of Mr. Bigler to recommit the whole subject to the committee. They are as follows: lat. Afterming the Cincinnati platform. 3d. That all citrees have a rig. 1 to actile in the territories, without their rights of person or property being impaired, either by Congressional or Territorial legislation. 3d. That the Democratic party stands piedged to the doctrine that it is the day of the government to maintain all constitutional rights of property of whatever kind, in the territories, and to enforce the decisions of the Supreme Court in reference thereto.—4th, 5th and 6th of those reported by the majority. The vote was demanded, as follows, amid great excitement: 'yeas, 152; nays, 151. Motion carried.

The navs were, liaine 5, New Hampshire 5, Vermont 5, Massachusetts 6, Rhode Island 4, Connecticut 41, New York 35, New Jersey 8, Pennsylvania 11, Maryland 24, Virgints 1, Missouri 4, Illinos 11, Tennessee 1, Ohio 23, Indiana 13, Michigan 6, Wisconshi 5, Iowa A, Minnesota 8, All the balance, 152, were in the affirmative.

The misority is claimed as the first test of Becomes.

The minority is claimed as the first test of Douglas's strength, whilst the platform which will propably be adopted is Auti Squatter Sovereignty, on which Mr. Douglas cannot stand. The President decided that the vote did not carry the instructions to report within as hour, carry the instructions to report within an hour, and that the vote would now recur on this part of Mr. Bigler's motion.

Mr. Stewart-of Michigan moved that a vote be taken on each of the resolutions. (Sensation.)

Nearly one hour more was spent in discussing questions of order -Senator Bayard, in the meantime, endeavoring to allay the excitement.

At half-past 12 the President decided that the motion to lay the b-lance of Mr. Bigler's propositions on the table was in order. If it is laid on the table, the three platforms, without instructions as to matter or time, will go to the Committee with Mr. Bigler's propositions.

When Georgia was called, the minority of the delegation prot-sted against the vote of the State being given as a unit, on the ground that they were requested—not instructed—to vote as a unit. they were requested as a unit.
A debate on this point ensued, which checked the progress of the vote, and at half-past one o'clock the President decided that the Southern States being requested to vote as a unit is requiralent to an instruction, and that Georgia and the Court of the Court o

A motion next came up a mercutor.

Mr. Phillips of Penn., moved to adjourn to 10 o'clock.

A Georgia delegate moved to adjourn till 10 o'clock Monday. The motions were, however, withdraws and the question recurred on the motion to instruct the committee to report at 4 o'clock, which was adopted, and at 2½ o'clock the Convention adjourned till 4 o'clock.

APTERNOON SENSION.

The Convention reassembled at 4 P. M. The Committee or Platform said they would not be ready to report at half past 5 o'clock. Mr. Arery of North Carolina, reported from the majority of the Committee, and in doing so urged upon the delegates of the Northern States to recollect that the slaves who now grow cotton in Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia, are the children of slaves who were formerly slaves in their own States. The report of the majority is a combination of Mesars. Bavard of Delaware, Cochrane of New York, and Bigler of Fennay! les a combination of steaser, and Rigler of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Samuels of Iowa presented a minority report, eschewing Congressional Intervention and declaring that whether Congress or the Territorial Legislatures have the power to intervene depends upon the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, which decision they pledge the Democratic party to sustain and shide by. He proceeded at some length to address Southern members, appealing to them not to persist in demanding an abstraction that will drive one half of the Democracy of the North into the arms of the Bisck Republicans. His speech was a powerful, carnest and effective appeal, free from all bitterness, and was listened to with the most marked interest and attention by the Southern members. When Mr. Samuels had concluded,

Mr. Butler of Massachusetts presented another minority report, signed by the delegations from Illinois, Minuscota, Massachusetts and Indians, consisting of the Cincinnati Pistform, pure and simple, which he offered as a substitute for both the majority and minority reports.

Mr. Stevens, of Oregon, then obtained the floor amid a struggie of a bundred contestants, and proceeded to give his reasons for sustaining the report of the majority.

Mr. Stevens, of Oregon, then obtained the floor smid a straggie of a bundred contestants, and proceeded to give his reasons for sustaining the report of the majority.

Richard J. Brett, of Mo., took the ground that although be was opposed to Squatter Sovereignty, he must still, as a matter of policy, sustain the position of non-intervention. Four years ago the South demanded this principle of non-intervention, and why do they come here and demand this surrender of principle. He castioned them upon the result of their extreme views; they could lead to nothing but the election of a Black Republican President and Congress.

Mr. Burrows of Arkansas followed in a speech on the Southern side of the question, commencing at 30 minutes to 5 o'clock. He maintained that the South had upheld the Democratic party from the beginning of the government to the present day. That the South has deen foremeat in fighting the battles of the country, and that in fact the Democratic party owes everything to the South. The South has extended the boundaries of the country and has turnished the neans at all times of paying the debts of the country. His remarks were of the most violent and indiammatory character, and the impatience to come to a vote, the noise and confusion, clapping and stamping was so great that he could scarcet ve heard beyond the yound the y

The Pony Express.

St. Jennes, April Pony—The Pony Express, due here yesterday, has not yet arrived, and is 24 hours behind time. The delay is probably caused by high water in the mountain streams. The last express coming cast, while guing at a rapid raise in the night, the horse stumbled over an ox lying in the road, throwing the rifer and the horse fail apon him and a bedly crushed him that it was feared he would soon die. Not without the stream of the express leaving here to right will take out a full seament yet may be the the continue of the grand prize light, and other European advices up to the 18th. This will get the pere from London and Liverpool

The Great Heenan-Sayers Fight. FULL PARTICULARS.

(From the London Daily News, 18th.)
This Frour.—The long projected fight between Heans and Sayers took place yeaterday? By four o'clock in the morning, the visitors, to the scene of sction were sourceyed from the London Bridge station, and they slighted near Farmborough. The fight issued 9 hours and 8 minutes, during which 37 rounds were fought. Sayers drew the first blood; and Heense claumed the first knock-down. Sayers-diet net-show any signs of punishment, but his right arm was much injured by his estempts to mark off Heense's tremedone blow. Heense once debout to strangle him. The referee subsequently quitted the ring, and declared admain battle, but two or three more skirmishes were made, Heense seemed pidifferent as to whether

Ath. Heenau went up to Sayers, shot out tremendously with his lett, and hit Sayers again on the mouth and sent him spinning to the ground.

In the 5th and 6th round, Sayers fell, without any punishment being given on either side.

7th. Sayers landed a tearful blew on Heenan's left cheek, cutting it open, and Heenan's left eye became almost immediately closed in darkness. This round lasted twelve misuites, and ended with Hernan knocking Sayers down he an's right eye and fell.

19th and 20th rounds they closed, Heenan throwing Sayers in both instances.

In the 21st and 22d rounds, fibernan went up to Sayers and knocked him down. Loud cheera.
Betting 4 to 1 in favor of Heenan.

23d. After some severe hitting on both sides, Heenan's face became much disfigured; they closed, and Sayers had a throw recorded in his favor.

and fell, Sayers under.
26th Sayer's lauded a severe blow on Heenan's left cheek and fell.
27th. Heenan followed Sayers about the ring.
Slight counter-hitting. The former landed another severe blow on Sayers' mouth.
28th. A similar round to the last, Sayers fall-mouth. The two closed and fell, Sayers under.

33d. In this round, Heenan retired to his corner, and seemed rather reluctant at calling out. Sayers, looking anxiously, let fly with his left, and gave a teiling blow on Heenan's frontispiece. Betting even on Sayers, at this time, it was jerident that daylight was becoming almost of no avail to Heenan, as both his eyes were nearly closed, and his face altogether presented a frightful appearance.

35d. Heenan landed a crusher on Sayers' mouth, and sent him sprawling to the ground. It was now plain to be seen that Sayers' right arm was not of much avail to him from the repeated stopping of blows, and Heenan's hand also became much avoilen from the repeated use be had made of it.

34th. Sayers hit out rapidly twice, giving, it.

him heavily on the mouth and sent him to the ground.

35th. The two soon closed, and Sayers getting hold of Heenan by the neck, hit him severely over the leit eye.

35th. The two closed. Sayers was thrown.

37th. Heenan gave Sayers one in the mouth, the latter failing.

38th. Sayers closed and fell. Heenan gave him one on the head when he had almost reached the ground, it being a question of "foul." but was not persevered in, being considered an accident.

39th. Heenan got his arm around Sayer neck, and to all appearances was strangli him. Cries of "let him go" were raised. He nan, however, stuck to his hold, and the ris was broken in. The greatest confusion pr vailed. The umpire was carried away in throng, and the light was prematurely broug to a close, neither having been declared the winner.

LONDON, Wednesday evening, 19th.—Ther is a rumor this morning that the men will figh again, but nothing authentic has transpire and there has not been a meeting of the parties again, but nothing nutbentic has transpired, and there has not been a meeting of the parties interested.

Naw Yonz, April 28.—The Times London correspondent says: I visited Heenan last evening and found him most comfortable and in excellent spirits. He is anxious to fight sayers as soon as possible. He is anxious to fight sayers as soon as possible. If he is not satisfied with the present result. The indignation of the Americans here, and in fact a large portion of the British public, is loudly and vehemently expressed. The ring was broken into by a pack of thieves who used the excuse to rob overy one. It was well known that Mr. Heenan would not be allowed to carry the champion belt out of the country, and the Englishmen who had bet their all on Sayers, as soon as they found thir champion was losing, resorted to the most unfar means, kicking Heenan and pulling him down.

A meeting of the Americans will take place in London to hight, and you may expect to use some controversuse in the papers. Sr. George-Wilkes will demand the belt for Heenan, and will furnish testimony to prove he is entitled to it. Of one thing your readers way be circuin: Heenan's rights will be maintained to the last. The Tribane says: A gentleman now at the St. Mebolas, and who witnessed the light, says that when Heenan had got Sayers into such a position will be maintained. The Canadian Steamship Company have chartered the new Conned steamer Palestine, and intend to dispatch her to Quebec, on the 18th or May.
